

Here are a few basic facts:

- It is completed in stages, all of which are monitored through the ToK class and perhaps the English 11/12 IB classes as well.
- It will concern a topic that fits into one of the subjects available for specific testing session. It is likely that all of the following subjects will be viable choices in any case:

BIOLOGY
BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT
CHEMISTRY
COMPUTER SCIENCE
DANCE
ECONOMICS
ENVIRONMENTAL SYSTEMS
FILM
GEOGRAPHY
HISTORY
ITGS
LITERATURE
MATHEMATICS
MUSIC
PHILOSOPHY
PHYSICS
PSYCHOLOGY
SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY
SPORTS, EXERCISE, AND HEALTH
THEATRE
VISUAL ARTS
WORLD RELIGIONS
WORLD STUDIES

- It will require each student to work with a faculty mentor who has expertise in the subject area.
- It will ultimately be 3000-4000 words.

IB EXTENDED ESSAY TIME LINE

CLASS OF 2019

Junior Class Orientation

Supervision Contract due to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, November 10, 2017

Mentor, subject area, general topic

Meeting and Research Evidence due to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, December 1, 2017

Mentor meeting log and evidence of research

Meeting Evidence and Outline due to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, February 2, 2018

Mentor meeting log and outline

Electronic Copy of Rough Draft due to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, March 9, 2018

Cover page, table of contents, abstract, introduction, body, works cited, appendices

Meeting evidence to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, April 20, 2018

Mentor meeting log

Electronic Copy of Final draft, along with a typed, electronic copy of the RPPF form, due to Mr. Reynolds--Friday, May 11, 2018